

Summer Seminars on the European Union: Policies, Governance and Challenges

Jean Monnet EU Center of Excellence, University of Rome Tor Vergata and Italian National School of Public Administration (SSPA)

Seminar 3: The Challenges of the Next (?) EU Enlargement

Rome, 5 July –9 July 2010

Monday 5 July “Frontiers of Europe: A Transatlantic Problem”

(venue: Villa Madama)

9.30-10.30: Registration

10.30-12.30: Official Opening

Federiga Bindi, Professor, University of Rome Tor Vergata and SSPA

Franco Frattini, Italian Minister of Foreign Affairs, Italy

Renato Lauro, Rector, University of Rome Tor Vergata

Renato Brunetta, Italian Minister of Public Administration (TBC)

13.00 – 15.00: The State of EU Negotiation and Enlargement Perspectives (Working lunch)

Ferdinando Nelli Feroci, Permanent Representative of Italy to the European Union (TBC)

Ian Iversen, Professor, Aarhus University, Denmark

John Peet, European Editor, The Economist

Stefan Fule, Commissioner for Enlargement (TBC)

Jeremy Shapiro, Special Advisor, Department of State, US

15.30 -17.30: Immigration, Terrorism, Internal Security: Related or Un-related Phenomena?

Giuliano Amato, Former Italian Prime Minister, Italy

Gilles de Kerkove, EU’s Counter-terrorism Coordinator (TBC)

Umberto Melotti, Professor, University of Rome La Sapienza

Kevin Sabeth, Advisor, Office of National Drug Control Policy, The White House, US

Gary J. Schmitt, Director of Advanced Strategic Studies American Enterprise Institute

Tuesday 6 July “Frontiers of Europe: A Transatlantic Problem”

(venue: Villa Madama)

10.30 - 12.30: Energy Policies: Between Environment and Power Politics

Massimo Gaiani, Diplomatic Advisor to the Minister of European Affairs

Nicola Pedde, Director, Institute for Global Studies

Alessandro Ortis, President, Italian Energy Authority

Mark Entin, Professor, Moscow State University

Charlie Ebinger, Director Energy Strategic Initiative, Brookings Institute

12.30 – 14.30: The New Frontiers of Economic Development for Europe (Working lunch)

Giovanni Tria, President, SSPA

Khalid Emara, Deputy-Assistant Foreign Minister, Islamic Republic of Egypt

Alfred Tovias, Professor, Hebrew University of Jerusalem

Giandomenico Magliano, Director General, Multilateral Economic and Financial Cooperation, Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs

Darrell West, Vice President and Director Governance Studies, Brookings Institution

15.00 - 17.00: A New Security Architecture?

Luca Giansanti, Italian Ambassador to COPS, Brussels
Jan Techau, Senior Fellow, NATO Defense College in Rome
Stefano Stefanini, Italian Ambassador to NATO (TBC)
Mark Entin, Professor, Moscow State University
Jeremy Shapiro, Special Advisor, Department of State, US

Wednesday 7 July “Frontiers of Europe: A Transatlantic Problem”

(venue: Villa Madama)

10.30-12.30: Democracy and Rule of Law

Leonardo Morlino, Professor, Istituto Italiano di Scienze Umane, Florence, Italy
Vincenzo Scotti, Deputy Minister, Italian Ministry for Foreign Affairs (TBC)
Bernard Yvar, Montesquieu-Bordeaux IV University
Amichai Magen, Lecturer in Law, Stanford Law School
Nikiforos Diamandouros, European Ombudsman (TBC)

12.30 – 14.30: Where does Europe End? (Working Lunch)

David Thorne, US Ambassador to Italy
Joaquin Roy, Professor, University of Miami
Khalid Emara, Deputy-Assistant Foreign Minister, Arabic Republic of Egypt
Marta Dassu’, Director General, Aspenia Italia – Advisor to EUHR Catherine Ashton

Thursday 8 July: EU-US (and the others...)

(venue: Italian National School of Public Administration, Via dei Robilant 11)

10.30 – 13.00 The Neighbors Pros and Cons

Tom Casier, Senior Lecturer, University of Kent

14.30 – 17.00 The Iran – Turkey Weird Couple

Nicola Pedde, Director, Institute for Global Studies

Friday 9 July: Troubled Neighbors

(venue: Italian National School of Public Administration, Via dei Robilant 11)

10.30 – 13.00 EU-US relations

Federiga Bindi, Professor, University of Rome Tor Vergata and SSPA

14.30 – 17.00 The Triangle: the EU, the US and Middle East

Khalid Emara, Deputy-Assistant Foreign Minister, Arabic Republic of Egypt

*Transportation from Rome to Villa Mondragone and viceversa will be arranged by the organizers.