Legal Training Seminar - Florence, 7-10 October 2010

European anti-discrimination law and legal protection of LGBT people

The EQUAL JUS project, co-funded by the European Union under the Fundamental Rights and Citizenship Programme, invites you to participate in a high-level training seminar on Implementation of European Anti-Discrimination Law: The legal protection of LGBT people to be held in Florence on 7-10 October 2010.

We invite applications from practicing lawyers and from lawyers who are involved in NGOs working in the field of human rights and LGBT rights or in legal training organisations. The Equal Jus Partners will cover travel and living expenses of at least 30 participants under the terms specified in the call for applications published on www.equal-jus.eu.

Goals

- ✓ enable legal professionals as well as institutions to increase their knowledge of fundamental rights protection with regard to sexual orientation and gender identity at national and European level
- ✓ acquire skills to provide legal support in case of discrimination and litigate strategically

How to apply

- ✓ Submit the application form together with a CV, a short motivation letter and a letter of endorsement by a supporting institution of an EU country before the deadline

Content: European and international law and sessions on litigation strategies and dynamic anti-discrimination approaches

Trainers: academics, prominent practitioners, legal experts of international institutions, judges
